Committee Purpose:

The main purpose of the educational programs committee is to identify model educational programs within SEAHO and recommend appropriate ways to share them with the SEAHO membership; and to publicize and administer the Educational Programs Grant Opportunities.

Annual Goals and Objectives:

1. Gather information on educational partnerships that maybe utilize in residence halls.
2. Ed Programs Grants
 - Follow up with this year's grant winners and show SEAHO's support for their efforts.
 - Recruit grants and give feedback to all submitters.
3. Solicit information and/or resources to be posted on diversity page of SEAHO website.
4. Create speaker's bureau and/or solicit submissions for current database on SEAHO website.
5. Create web page with information regarding educational programs and related information.

Progress since Last Report:

The committee has been on a bit of a hiatus since the last report. Both committee chairs have and/or will start new positions at different institutions. We will work toward establishing action plans for the following goals: (1) touch base with previous grant winners and encourage program submissions for upcoming conference and (2) develop resource related to topics from last year to be distributed at upcoming conference.
